First Nations children (up to age 14) and First Nations youth (aged 15 to 30) currently attending school are invited to submit videos and artwork that tell stories of their First Nations cultures and everyday life:

- short storytelling video of songs, dances;
- learning on the land;
- artwork on culture; or
- storytelling themes.

This is a great opportunity to showcase cultures in your communities and schools. Your submission will be featured on the First Nations Education Administrators Storyteller Page Àdisòkewinini in Algonquin Anishinaabemowin.

Guidelines

- Eight Regional winners (individual or group) will be selected by draw for each of the following areas across Canada. 1) Yukon & NWT, and Nunavut 2) British Columbia, 3) Alberta, 4) Saskatchewan, 5) Manitoba, 6) Ontario, 7) Quebec and 8) Atlantic (New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland & Labrador).
- National winners will be selected by their peers. Each entrant will be asked to identify the top three submissions that resonate with them (liked the message, can use the teaching, or learned something new).

November 26, 2021

- Each entrant views all submissions on the FNEAA Storyteller Page to select the top three favourites.
- Contest open to First Nations children (up to age 14) and First Nations youth (aged 15 to 30) currently attending school.
- One entry per student or student group
